Development Suitability - Equal-Weight Scenario

Edward's Aquifer Recharge Zone | Central Texas

Methodology: Development suitability was evaluated using four equally weighted criteria: road accessibility, population density, impervious-surface change (2005–2025), and terrain slope. Protected lands were excluded from the analysis. Suitability is classified into five categories, from Very Low to Very High.

Esri, CGIAR, USGS